

Mines

Rules

Introduction

In Mines, the Player is presented with a game board of 25 options organized in a 5x5 grid. Each of the 25 options contain either a winning or a losing outcome. Before each gameplay, the number of losing outcomes on the board is chosen by the Player. The more potential losing outcomes on the board, the higher the potential payout. For each winning outcome selected, the potential payout will increase. The Player may collect the payout after any winning outcome is selected. The game ends and wager is forfeited if the Player selects a losing outcome. The game also ends when the Player selects an available cashout option.

How To Bet in Manual Mode

On the initial round, the following betting options are available to the Player:

Option	Result
MINES	Allows the Player to select the amount of mines that will be placed on the grid.
WAGER AMOUNT	Allows the Player to select the amount of their wager.
Ø	Resets the WAGER AMOUNT to $1.00.
2x	Doubles the amount of the wager currently placed.
PLACE WAGER	Starts the game with the selected WAGER AMOUNT .
BALANCE	Allows the Player to view the total balance.

- (1) At the start of the round, the Player enters a wager and selects Place Wager.
- (2) After the wager is placed, the game begins. The Player will then select one of the available options from the 5x5 grid.
- (3) If the Player chose a winning outcome, they will have the option of either:
 - (a) Continuing the game by selecting another option from the available choices, or
 - (b) Ending the current game by cashing out. When selecting the Cash Out option, the Player will be paid the displayed amount.

Option	Result
CASH OUT	Pays the Player the displayed amount.

- (4) If the Player chose a losing outcome the game will end and the Player's wager will be forfeited.

- (5) If the Player makes it to the end of the game board they will be paid the Cash Out amount for the whole grid.
